FOOD PHILOSOPHY

Dine like a royal at Shabestan, one of the best Middle Eastern restaurants in Singapore. Senior Executive Chef, Hamid Hosseini, who is from Persia, has designed the menu at Shabestan to offer diners a healthy dining experience without compromising on taste or flavours.

Created from the heart, each dish at Shabestan is made from scratch using the finest Persian spices and herbs. Our culinary team adheres to authentic Persian cooking techniques that has been satisfying middle eastern food cravings for the last 7 years.

SHABESTAN, FINEST PERSIAN RESTAURANT

EXECUTIVE CHEF

HANY MOUSTAFA

Middle-Eastern Executive Chef, Hany Moustafa Basyouni Gabr, has been preparing Middle-Eastern cuisine for the last 26 years.

Previously from the kitchens of a Middle-Eastern Royal Family, Executive Chef Hany's passion for Persian cuisine has got him using the best of ingredients and traditional Persian cooking techniques to ensure authentic Persian cuisine at Shabestan.

"Having mastered the art of cooking Middle-Eastern cuisine, the one Persian dish that stands out are the Persian Kebabs. From the way the meat is marinated, to the way it is moulded onto the skewer before being grilled over charcoal flames, the Persian kebabs are a must-try at Shabestan", says Executive Chef Hany.

Sprawling over 3,200 square feet in Robertson Quay, Shabestan offers several seating options for guests to choose from. Whether you're on a date looking for a romantic ambience such as an alfresco dining experience by the river, or have a lunch or dinner party for 8, Shabestan is able to accommodate both indoor and outdoor dining experiences.

This Middle-Eastern restaurant in Singapore also has a private dining room for a grand Persian dining experience which can accommodate up to 26 guests.
